Dusit Rayavadee

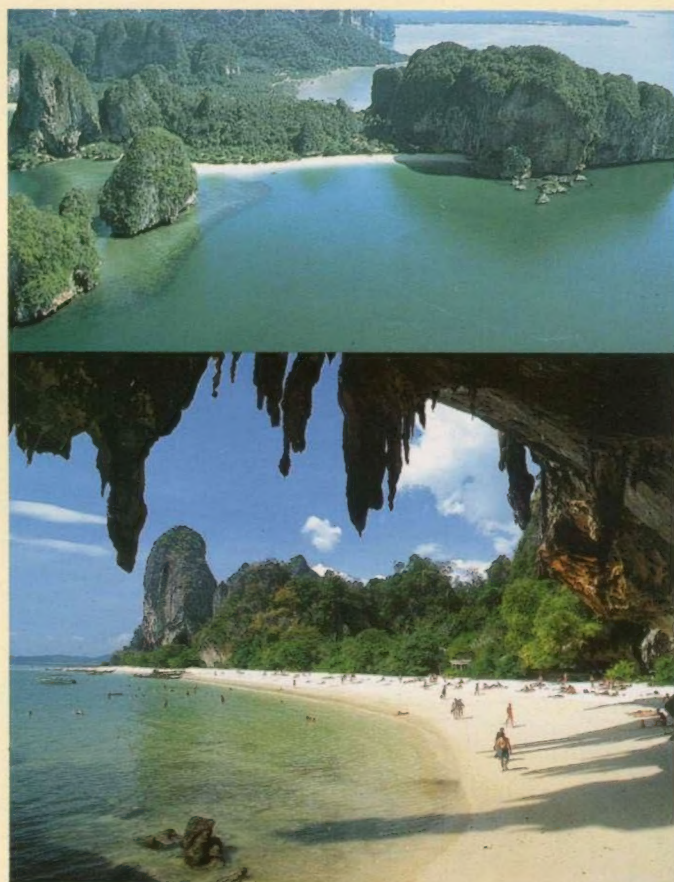

*A Holiday Sanctuary
In the Land of the Legendary Princess*

For all of us who dream of living in a tropical paradise, Mother Nature has created a unique place in the south of Thailand—Cape Phra Nang in Krabi, location of the Dusit Rayavadee Resort.

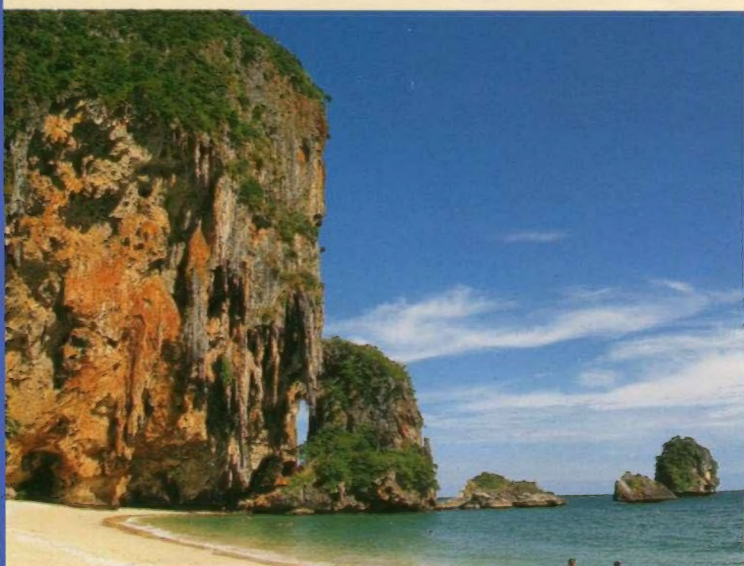

Nature endowed the land there with lush vegetation, surrounded by sheer rock formations climbing hundred of feet tall. The headland is a hidden place, a charming peninsula with three beaches. One of them, Phra Nang beach, ranks among the world's most beautiful. It is composed of fine white sand, crystal clear water, and groups of strangely-shaped rock islands. All with the turquoise sea in the background.

Rainforest trees with wild monkeys and exotic birdlife extend from one end of the pristine beach to the other. As a backdrop, the amazing rock towers of the cape stand like sentinels on guard, one of them with majestic Phra Nang cave at its foot.

Legend has it that the spirit of a princess called Phra Nang resides in the cave's heavenly environment. Indeed, it is said to be her headland.

At Cape Phra Nang you will find the Dusit Rayavadee Resort, a refreshing alternative to other highly-developed hotels. If you escape to this sanctuary you can live truly at leisure among Nature without sacrificing the comforts of luxury.

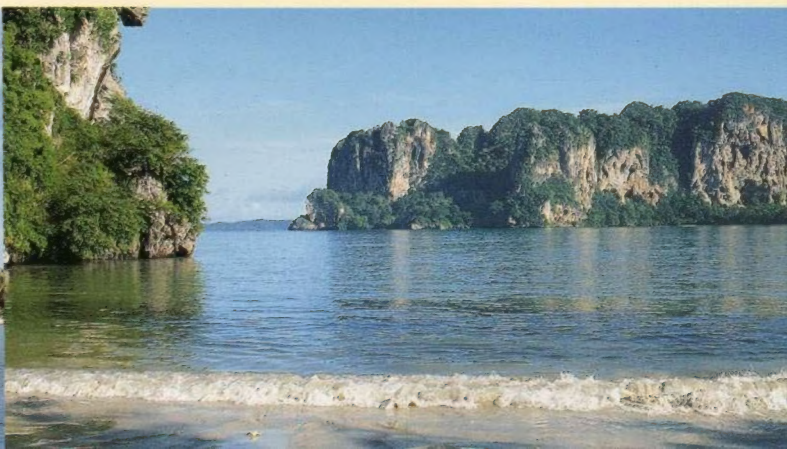

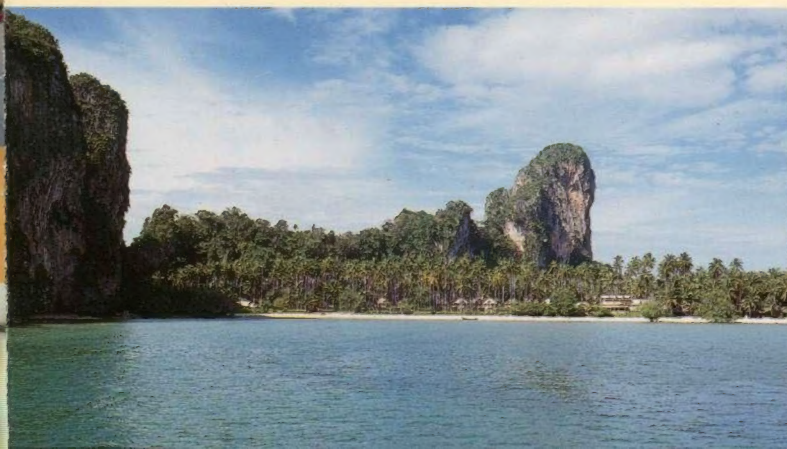

In the privacy of the resort you can relax in your own pavilion, built as a delightful hexagonal-shaped cottage among the trees. The unique shape of the pavilions means that no trees were cut during construction of the Dusit Rayavadee. The Association of Siamese Architects, under Royal Patronage, awarded the resort a gold medal in 1994 for sustainable architectural development.

Surrounded by several hundred hectares of marine national park, the Dusit Rayavadee Resort is the perfect hideaway, a place where you can spend your days in active or passive recreation and your nights partying until sleep makes its belated call.

The resort hotel offers a choice of 100 deluxe pavilions and villas. All of them have been built discreetly among mature coconut trees, adjacent to three beaches. The spectacular swimming pool is located beside Railay beach, known for its bold sunsets.

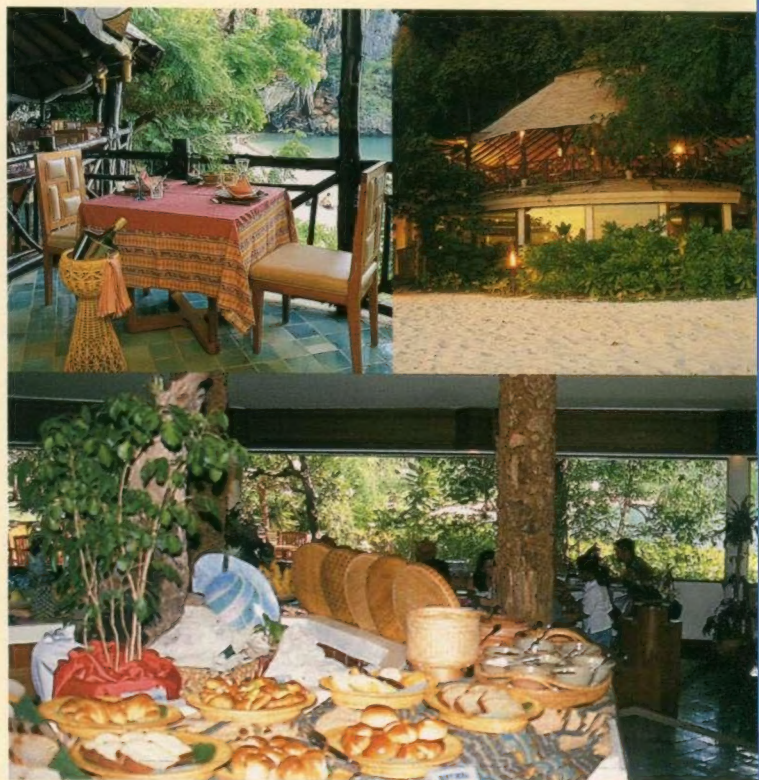

There are many creature comforts in the Dusit Rayavadee. Simply dress down to the minimum for lazing by the pool or on any of the front beaches. Who can resist plunging into the warm and calm tropical waters of the adjacent sea? If you prefer private enjoyment, choose from a comprehensive selection of videos and CDs in our library to play in your own room.

For deeper relaxation try our ancient Thai massage. Take your massage by the pool or in our sauna room. In the afternoon you might want to visit the beauty parlour before going out for the evening.

After sunset you may wish to dress up to dine. By night, people join at the Lobby Bar for pre-dinner cocktails. Afterwards, simply step next door to the Raya Dining restaurant where exquisite cuisines are prepared by both international and Asian chefs.

Alternatively, stroll along moonlit paths to romantic Phra Nang beach to taste legendary Thai cuisine and hospitality at the Krua Phra Nang Thai restaurant.

Here you can enjoy classic Thai cooking to the accompaniment of waves breaking on Phra Nang beach. The best of culinary Thailand is right here: sweet, sour, salty, refined, hot, even bitter. Try the magnificent platters of Andaman seafood along with exquisite imported wines. Whatever your taste in fine foods, you'll find dinner at the Krua Phra Nang Thai restaurant a truly delicious experience.

As Time Passes By

As the Dusit Rayavadee Resort is set on a small peninsula surrounded by sea, cliff and forest (with no roads), the setting feels like an island which can be your window on exotic Krabi.

The Dusit Rayavadee is encircled by national park. It's Nature's perfect playground on land or sea belonging to everybody, and almost every activity is free. So feel free!

Sail boats, canoes, and snorkel gear provide of watersport enjoyment. (Please note that our beaches have no jet skis or water scooters as these are banned in Krabi.)

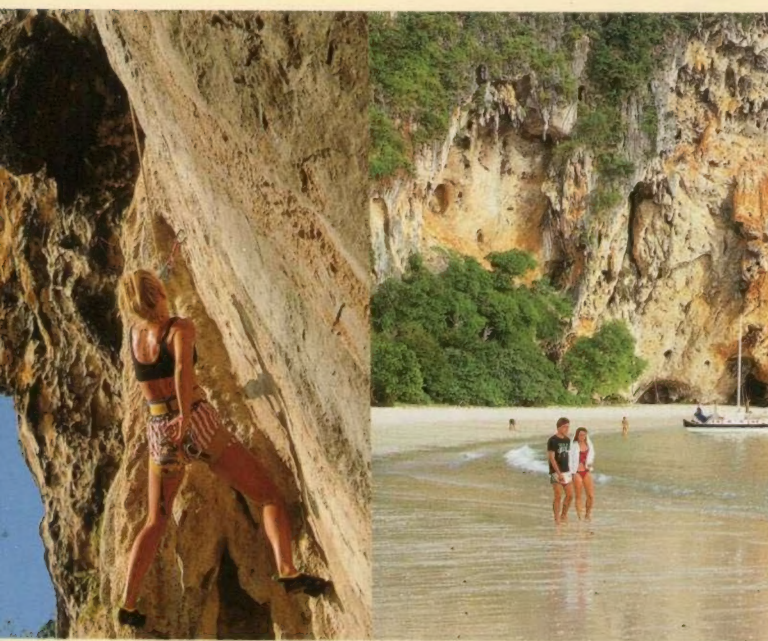

We will be delighted to arrange scuba dives for you to witness the wonderful underwater world of coral and tropical fish. The fully qualified PADI instructors will guide you to a marine fantasy realm within short range of the hotel. If you are more comfortable simply snorkelling, coral beds are just steps away from Phra Nang beach. You can enjoy the accompaniment of schools of tiny little fish a few metres from the beach.

Noon is the perfect time to visit the Princess Lagoon hidden inside the cliff beside the hotel. As you climb up and down the steep hill you can inspect the lush jungle and plentiful flora and fauna. It takes about an hour to reach the amazing creation of Mother Nature: a round pool about 600 feet in diameter surrounded by towering cliffs of stalactites and stalagmites. The water comes from the sea by an underground tunnel, so the lagoon is at its most picturesque at high tide.

You can also trek up to a viewpoint for an unforgettable birdseye view of the whole peninsula, an ancient landscape with extensive coconut plantations hemmed in by tropical blue sea.

With all the things to do around the hotel, you may want more time there than originally thought. Our guest activities staff can arrange daytrips to any of the postcard-perfect tropical islands in the marine national park. You can also discover why bigger communities such as Phi Phi Island, Panyu fishing village, and Krabi town are all photographic delights.

If you consider yourself strong and energetic, rock climbing there may come as an exciting discovery to you. There are courses from introductory to advanced. You can get high and marvel at the surreal beauty of Phra Nang headland.

At low tide visit Phra Nang beach and wade across the channel to the twin islands. There you can look back to admire the panoramic beauty of one of the world's exquisite coastlines.

Yet Krabi has more than seascapes and islands. Tropical rainforests have been conserved as national parks. You may like, for example, to visit waterfalls in the forest. Tiger Cave Temple, natural hot water plunge pools, and cave systems once the abode of pre-historic people who first inhabited the land around 40,000 years ago.

*C*loser to the Dusit Rayavadee there are island hops, barbecue excursions by Siamese junk boat, and sunset cocktail cruises. These create memories you'll never forget.

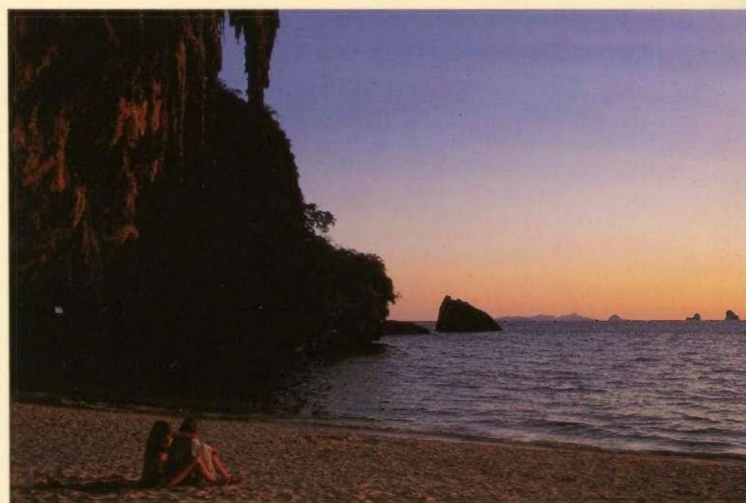

*W*ithin the resort itself, there are plenty of sporting options. Try a game of tennis on our two floodlit jungle courts. (You might find a troop of monkeys coming down to play ballkeeper.) Or change your racquet to play squash in our air-conditioned court instead.

Then there is the fully equipped exercise gym to help you tone up your body. Alternatively, enjoy the fun of all-comers volleyball, down on Railay beach prior to sunset.

*F*or more gentle exercise try a session on our snooker and ping-pong tables. At the same time let the children run free in the supervised kiddies' playroom.

*A*fter staying at the Dusit Rayavadee for a few days, you may find time loses much of its meaning. The living is easy and seductive. It's the perfect place to forget the outside world where they may call it being lazy. But at the Dusit Rayavadee you'll soon stop worrying about what they think at home.

We believe the Dusit Rayavadee is the ideal retreat from modern civilisation and the natural alternative to other common seaside resorts.

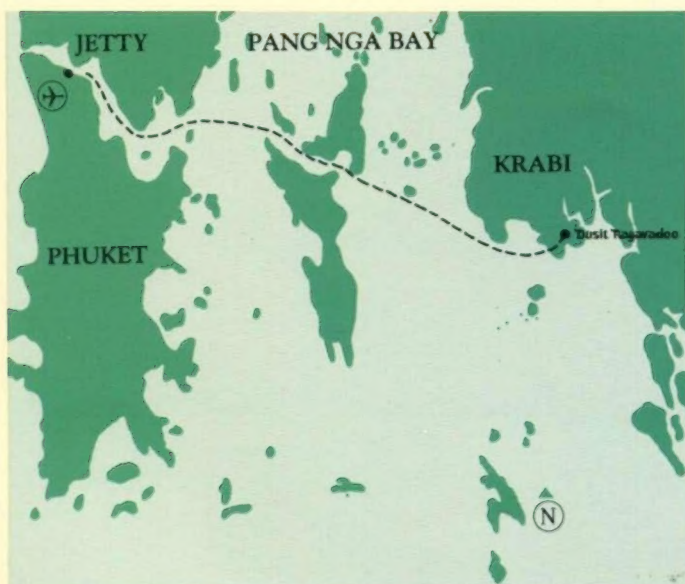

How To Get There

*D*usit Rayavadee is within easy reach of Phuket international airport. You may fly direct to Phuket or go via Bangkok. At Phuket airport our guest service staff will be waiting to welcome you and take you to the private jetty a mere ten minutes drive away. Your holiday truly begins onboard our comfortable boat.

The journey to Phra Nang headland in Krabi takes about 90 minutes passing through the impressionistic seascapes of Phangnga Bay. You can see fishermen leading lives virtually unchanged down the years. The fantastic rock formations here were the location for the James Bond movie, Man with the Golden Gun.

*I*n the monsoon period (May to October) it is often more practical to go from Phuket to Krabi by road. The scenic route passes through rubber plantations, towering limestone hills and small villages. In Krabi itself, there is a short 10 minute boat ride from the road to the hotel.

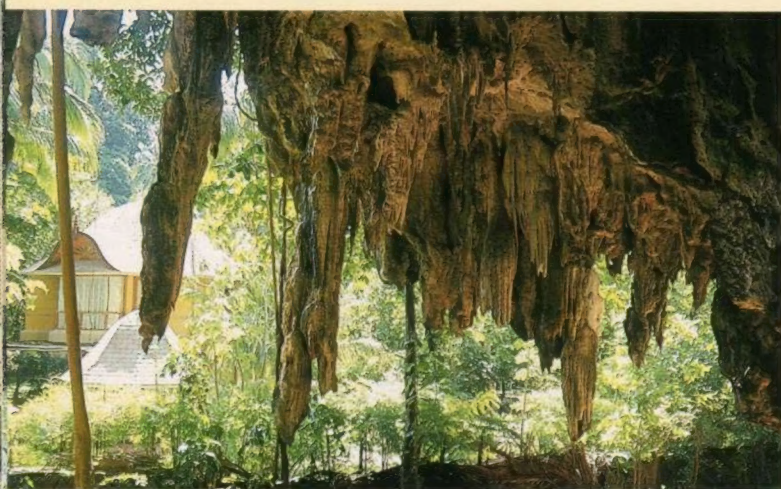

For golfers, the Dusit Rayavadee can arrange for you to tee-off at one of Phuket's world class courses on the way to or from the airport.

Choose the Location You Prefer

Hidden in a coconut grove surrounded by limestone hills and three beaches, the pavilions of the Dusit Rayavadee are located in areas named after the nearest beach.

Phra Nang village: Located near the magnificent world class Phra Nang beach, the pavilions are slightly isolated with a lot of surrounding trees in a pristine setting between two cliffs. The Phra Nang area is good for people who prefer privacy and a jungle environment.

Railay village: The pavilions here are built slightly closer to each other near the swimming pool (which shares the same vanishing line with the sea.) Most of the beach activities are located here. It is ideal for those who come in groups of friends or in families. Railay is famous for its sunsets.

Nam Mao village: In the middle of the resort, this is the best place for sunrise and is the most convenient for proximity to the majority of places in the hotel including the main Raya Dining restaurant. It is suitable for people who prefer not to walk too much.

Phra Nang Villa: The grand suite has one master bedroom with a living and dining room as well as a second bedroom. Guests can enjoy a magnificent view of Railay cove from the outdoor jacuzzi on the big terrace beside the beach.

Rayavadee Villa: This royal suite is located at immaculate Phra Nang beach. It has its own private compound with a lovely swimming pool, sauna and jacuzzi. It offers one master bedroom with living room and separate dining room and kitchen. There is a second bedroom unit for additional members of the group.

Rooms To Meet Your Requirements

Accommodation options at the Dusit Rayavadee have been designed to meet your specific needs:-

Pavilions with jacuzzi (8 units): We selected the best location to add a second outdoor jungle bathroom with jacuzzi. These are ideal for romantic couples.

Two-Bedroom Pavilions (4 units): These are pavilions with a second attached bedroom suitable for families with grown up children, or for two families staying together.

There are five types equivalent to suite standard in any other five-star hotel, the choice includes:

Pavilions (86 units): In each pavilion, the glass walls on the ground floor allow the space to flow between the living room and the garden outside. Upstairs, the bedroom has a high dome-shaped ceiling for more breathing space, and a very romantic bathroom. These are two-storey modern Thai houses giving a high level of luxury. Pavilions are suitable for couples or families with two young children.
